PSALM 121:8 (NIV) — “THE LORD WILL WATCH OVER YOUR COMING AND GOING BOTH NOW AND FOREVERMORE.”

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK: GOD IS PRESENT IN EVERY TRANSITION - WALKING INTO SCHOOL, HEADING TO CLASS, GOING HOME, TAKING EXAMS AND EVERYTHING IN BETWEEN. IT'S STEADY, SIMPLE, AND REASSURING FOR A BUSY WEEK.

“He refreshes my soul. He guides me along the right paths for his name’s sake.” Psalm 23:3

As we reach the end of the school year, it’s easy to feel tired, stressed, or distracted. Exams, deadlines, and the push to finish strong can make you feel like you’re running on empty. And sometimes, in the middle of all that pressure, it’s tempting to drift—cut corners, lose focus, or let your attitude slip.

Psalm 23:3 reminds us that God guides us along the right paths, not always the easiest ones. Finishing the year with integrity, effort, and a good attitude isn’t always simple. You might feel pulled toward shortcuts or distractions, or you may just feel worn out. But God knows that. He understands your weaknesses, your stress, and your struggles. And He doesn’t give up on you.

When you wander, He leads you back. When you’re overwhelmed, He refreshes your soul. When you’re unsure, He shows you the next right step. As you take exams and close out these final days, stay close to Him. Let Him guide your choices, your mindset, and your effort. He will help you finish well.

Dear Lord, thank You for walking with me through this school year. As I take exams and finish these last days, refresh my mind and guide my steps. Help me stay focused, make good choices, and honor You in the way I finish. Amen.
